

To the Waldorf Community,

The Indian Waldorf Education Forum (IWEF), with immense pleasure, announces its first Global Webinar on THE DEVELOPMENT OF HUMAN 'I' in EDUCATION.

We are delighted to have two great leaders from the Waldorf Pedagogy and Anthroposophy, who need no introduction as they are institutions by themselves;

CHRISTOF WIECHERT*, Former leader of the Pedagogical section, Goetheanum, Dornach, Switzerland to bring a pedagogical perspective, and from a philosophical perspective

DR JOST SCHIEREN*, Head of the Faculty of Education at Alanus University, Alfter, (near Bonn), Germany.

In these unprecedented times of pandemonium and uncertainty, we are challenged with our individual and collaborated anxiety, stress, confusion, and fear.

On one side we feel we are racing against time, and on the other hand, a sense of slowness is triggering the fear of the unknown. This is only growing due to isolation and separateness. We can only imagine how children of different age-groups, and especially what teenagers are experiencing, are double the anxiety and doubts as compared to us.

This is like dusting off the mirror seeing a true picture of our materialistic thinking that has affected our social and cultural well-being that led to unimaginable consequences and it did not stop with individuals, rather has impacted societies and our environment.

Simultaneously we are experiencing the elevated human beings selflessly reaching out to one another.

Let us embark on this insightful and enriching journey with both the mentors.
